TO ALL STUDENTS

SUBJECT: UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

As you prepare to sit for your Special Resit and Special examinations during you are instructed and advised to take note of Article 8.11 of the JOOUST students' Rules and Regulations which warns students against cheating in exams. In this context, irregularities include:

- (a) Being in possession of unauthorized material in an examination room. These include books, notes, electronic devices with pre-set formulae, MOBILE PHONES, pre-written answers, etc
- (b) Attempting to copy or making reference to the unauthorized material in the examination room.
- (c) Disturbing or distracting any other candidate during an examination.
- (d) Seeking or obtaining a deferment of examination on false pretense.
- (e) Plagiarism.
- (f) Smoking, eating or drinking beverages in the examination room.
- (g) Refusal to stop writing after the invigilator has timed out.
- (h) Being engaged in any other misconduct relating to Examinations such as taking an Examination Script out of the examination room instead of handing it over to the Examiner at the end of examination time.

Note:

- i) Involvement in any examination irregularity is a serious offence that attracts the following penalties: Cancellation of Results, Stern Warning, Suspension and Discontinuation.
- ii) Sitting for exams without Exam Card attracts heavy penalty-whether one has cleared fees or not. Please carry along your National ID Card; University ID and exam card and display them on the arm of the chair. Please oblige.
