1.0 Introduction

The Recruitment policy provides guidelines for ensuring a transparent and fair hiring process that will assist the University to select the right candidate on the basis of merit and relevance to the job and is aligned to JOOUST Criteria for Appointments and Promotions.

This Policy is implemented in compliance with Constitution of Kenya 2010, Public Service Commission, HR Policies and Procedures Manual, Employment Act 2007, JOOUST HR Policy and Procedures Manual, JOOUST Criteria for Appointments and Promotions and JOOUST Procedure for Staff Recruitment, Training & Development.

The policy covers the purpose, scope, objectives, roles and responsibilities, guiding principles, sources of recruitment, classification of employees, implementation, effective and review dates.

2.0 Purpose

To ensure that the University attracts and recruits the best qualified candidates to support its vision, mission, mandate, goals and strategic objectives.

3.0 Policy Statement

The University acknowledges the need to attract and retain applicants with the right competencies, skills, knowledge and commitment. It therefore seeks to ensure that the recruitment process is transparent, fair and credible and based on merit

4.0 Scope

This policy covers all staff and relevant stakeholders

5.0 Overall Objective

The overall objective of this policy is to manage the recruitment process within the University.

The specific objectives include to:

- (i) Identify applicants who will fit into the University's culture and contribute to University's goals.
- (ii) To improve the University's reputation through fair, unbiased and effective hiring practices
- (iii) To improve and streamline the recruitment process.
- (iv) To ensure attraction and retention of quality staff.

6.0 Roles and Responsibilities

The university Council, the Vice-chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Planning Administration and Finance), heads of departments and the employees have various roles and responsibility to play to ensure successful implementation of the policy as indicated below:

6.1 University Council

The University Council shall

- (i) Approve this policy for implementation.
- (ii) Be the appointing authority.

6.2 Vice Chancellor

The Vice Chancellor shall

- (i) Support and recommend the Staff Recruitment Policy to the University Council for approval.
- (ii) Chair the Appointments and Promotions Committee for the relevant cadres of staff as per the Statutes.
- (iii) Ensure implementation of the Recruitment Policy.

6.3 Appointments and Promotions Committee

- (i) The Appointments and Promotions Committee will be constituted as provided for in JOOUST Statutes.

- (ii) The Appointments and Promotions Committee will consider and recommend suitable candidates for appointment by the University Council.

7.0 Guiding Principles

- (i) The University will ensure that the recruitment of staff is conducted in a professional, timely and responsive manner and in compliance with the law.

- (ii) The University will treat all candidates fairly, with respect and courtesy, aiming to ensure that the candidate experience is positive, irrespective of the outcome.

- (iii) The University will promote best practices in recruitment. It will continuously develop its recruitment practices to allow new ideas and approaches to be incorporated.

- (iv) Members of the Appointment and Promotions Committee will be requested to declare conflict of interest to avoid any involvement and participation in the recruitment decision-making process.

- (v) All documentation/information relating to applicants will be treated confidentially.

- (vi) The University has a principle of open competition in its approach to recruitment.

- (vii) The University will seek to undertake recruitment on the basis of fair competition and merit, representation of diverse communities, adequate and equal opportunities to all gender, youth, ethnicity, persons with disabilities and minorities.

8.0 Recruitment Process

Recruitment process will be guided by the Values and Principles of Public Service as spelt out in Article 232 of the Constitution of Kenya. The University will ensure that staff appointed have the necessary skills, knowledge and attitude to deliver effective services.

8.1 Reporting of Vacancies

- (i) HoDs shall submit requests for recruitment of new staff to the RPA as and when need arises
- (ii) RPA shall compile all staff recruitment requests from HoDs and crosscheck with the staff establishment for existing vacancies.
- (iii) The RPA shall forward the requests and identified vacancies to the VC through DVC (PAF) within 7 days of receiving the requests.
- (iv) The VC may approve vacant positions for advertisements.
- (v) The RPA shall liaise with the Public Relations Office for external advertisements.

8.2 Sources of Recruitment

8.2.1 Internal Sources of Recruitment

Recruitment may be done internally by placing employees within the University internally through promotions and transfers.

a) Promotions

Promotion refers to upgrading the cadre of the employees by evaluating their performance in the University. It is the process of shifting an employee from a lower position to a higher position with more responsibilities, remuneration, facilities, and status. The effective date of promotion will be effective from the date the staff qualifies.

b) Transfers

Transfer refers to the process of changing with/without any change in the rank and responsibilities. It can also be the shifting of employees from one department to another department or one location to another location, depending upon the requirement of the position. Employees may be moved from one department/duty station to another as and when need arises. The types of transfers may include:

- i) Lateral transfer
